RECOMMENDATION

Approval on the September 16, 2008 active agenda.

BACKGROUND

In October, 2007, the Village Council amended its ethics ordinance to state that the Village Council would designate an Ethics Officer. To date, an Ethics Officer has not been designated, and the Village Attorney has served in that capacity. The Ethics Officer is generally responsible for ensuring that the activities of elected officials, board and commission members and Village employees meet the general accepted ethical standards as defined by Council Policy and set forth by ordinance. This ordinance shall appoint the Village Attorney as the Village's Ethics Officer.
