UPDATE & RECOMMENDATION

This item was discussed at the February 6, 2024 Village Council meeting. Staff recommends approval on the February 13, 2024 Active Agenda

BACKGROUND

"K-1" Catering licenses authorize the sale of alcoholic liquor in connection with the operation of an off-site catering business that serves alcoholic liquor in connection with the catering of foods for private functions. The sale of alcoholic liquor must be incidental to food service.

Due to an operational change from in-house service to catering service at the banquet facility located at 3500 Lacey Road, the Village has seen an increase in K-1 catering license requests. The establishment has opted to offer its clients a choice of licensed caterers from a "preferred list" of vendors, rather than providing in-house service. The goal is for better use of the site, more options for its clientele and to better meet an array of budgets.

The current ordinance limits the number of K-1 licenses to four (4). All four of the K-1 licenses have been issued, therefore, staff is requesting an increase in the number of K-1 licenses from four (4) to twelve (12) in order to accommodate additional catering companies wishing to obtain a license. This license will allow caterers to operate throughout the Village.
